Customer Operations Analyst | Buying & Product Operations | Pricing, Availability & Data Accuracy | Vendor & Customer Operations | SLA-Driven | Excel, SQL, Power BI

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Operations-focused analyst with 5+ years in e-commerce and B2B SaaS (Flipkart, Enverus), running product, pricing and availability operations for a large marketplace category under tight accuracy and SLA standards. Strong at maintaining product / vendor / pricing / inventory data, resolving vendor and customer queries, exceptions and discrepancies, and analyzing data to fix errors and process gaps. Works fluently across buying, merchandising, supply-chain, customer-service, finance and technology teams (offshore / onshore), and drives process improvement, automation and UAT. Advanced Excel, SQL and Power BI.

EXPERIENCE

Flipkart - Business Analyst - Large Appliances (eCommerce Marketplace) | Jun 2024 - Sep 2026

Owned product, seller / vendor and SKU operations for a large marketplace category - item setup, pricing, availability and data accuracy across the catalogue, with tight SLAs and cross-functional coordination.

- Managed end-to-end product / SKU operations - item setup, pricing, and availability / in-stock - maintaining catalogue and listing accuracy and timely updates for a large category.
- Reviewed and maintained product, vendor, pricing and inventory data; ran cohort and SKU trend analysis (YoY & MoM) and drove product-exchange bump-ups that grew category revenue 19% YoY.
- Handled vendor and customer queries, exceptions and escalations; monitored orders, transactions and discrepancies, resolving operational issues to protect availability and conversion.
- Analyzed operational data to surface trends, errors and process gaps; launched targeted pricing and loyalty-coupon actions that improved conversion 20%.
- Built automated Tableau / Power BI dashboards (SQL, Google Apps Script) with standardized KPIs; coordinated with buying, merchandising, supply-chain, customer-service and finance teams for real-time visibility.
- Drove process improvement and automation; built demand and sales forecasting to guide planning - supporting a 55% category revenue uplift during Big Billion Days while meeting accuracy and turnaround SLAs.

Enverus - Business Analyst I - Market Research (B2B SaaS) | Jan 2023 - May 2024

- Built and maintained Tableau / Power BI dashboards for US (onshore) commercial leaders from an offshore team, standardizing KPIs and supporting ARR that scaled into the $500MM range with strong data accuracy and timeliness.
- Re-engineered reporting through Lean Six Sigma, cutting cycle / turnaround times 20% and standardizing quality and SLA adherence across global teams.

Associate - Commercial Intelligence | May 2021 - Dec 2022

- Published quantitative research across 3 cycles and built unit-economics and pricing models; produced competitive and price intelligence with high data accuracy to support leadership decisions.
