Professional Summary

Functional and Business Analyst with 5+ years in high-scale retail and mobile-commerce (Flipkart) and global B2B SaaS (Enverus), pairing strong business analysis with functional solution delivery. I analyze business problems, gather and translate requirements into functional solutions, and partner with cross-functional and technical teams to develop, test (UAT), and ship improvements. On a mobile-first retail marketplace I track app funnel, conversion, traffic, pricing, and in-app promotions, and build the dashboards and KPIs that drive category growth and innovation. Proficient in SQL, Tableau, Power BI, and Advanced Excel; skilled in requirement analysis, process improvement (Lean Six Sigma), and stakeholder management, delivering results in fast-paced environments. VIT engineering graduate — currently serving notice and available at short notice.
