Professional Summary

Business Analyst with 5+ years managing and growing e-commerce / retail categories at Flipkart, pairing category strategy with deep analytics. I own category performance against sales and margin targets — planning assortment, pricing, and promotions; tracking performance and driving corrections; and analyzing market trends and competitor activity to identify growth opportunities. I develop and execute category strategies, coordinate cross-functionally with marketing, sales, and supply-chain teams, and prepare performance reports and recommendations for leadership. My data-driven category planning drove a 55% category revenue uplift during Big Billion Days. Proficient in SQL, Tableau, Power BI, Advanced Excel, and PowerPoint. VIT engineering graduate — currently serving notice and available at short notice.
